HON. A. K. McCLURE, Philadelphia, Solicitor.

The Chinese Government having (through the Hon. Anson Burlingame) conceded to this Company the privilege of connecting the great seaports of the Empire by submarine electric telegraph cable, we propose commencing operations in China, and laying down a line of nine hundred miles at once, between the following ports, viz:

	Population.
Canton	1,000,000
Macoa	60,000
Hong-Kong	250,000
Swatow	200,000
Amoy	250,000
Foo-Chow	1,250,000
Wan-Chu	300,000
Ningpo	400,000
Hang Chean	1,200,000
Shanghai	1,000,000
Total	5,910,000

These ports have a foreign commerce of $900,000,000, and an enormous domestic trade, besides which we have the immense internal commerce of the Empire, radiating from these points, through its canals and navigable rivers.

The cable being laid, this company proposes erecting land lines, and establishing a speedy and trustworthy means of communication, which must command there, as everywhere else, the communications of the Government, of business, and of social life especially in China. She has no postal system, and her only means now of communicating information is by couriers on land, and by steamers on water.

The Western World knows that China is a very large country, in the main densely peopled; but few yet realize that she contains more than a third of the human race. The latest returns made to her central authorities for taxing purposes by the local magistrate make her population Four hundred and Fourteen millions, and this is more likely to be under than over the actual aggregate. Nearly all of these, who are over ten years old, not only can but do read and write. Her civilization is peculiar, but her literature is as extensive as that of Europe. China is a land of teachers and traders; and the latter are exceedingly quick to avail themselves of every proffered facility for procuring early information. It is observed in California that the Chinese make great use of the telegraph, though it there transmits messages in English alone. To-day great numbers of fleet steamers are owned by Chinese merchants, and used by them exclusively for the transmission of early intelligence. If the telegraph we propose connecting all their great seaports, were now in existence, it is believed that its business would pay the cost within the first two years of its successful operation, and would steadily increase thereafter

No enterprise commends itself as in a greater degree remunerative to capitalists, and to our whole people. It is of vast national importance commercially, politically and evangelically.

☞ The stock of this Company has been unqualifiedly recommended to capitalists and business men, as a desirable investment by editorial articles in the New York Herald, Tribune, World, Times, Post, Express, Independent, and in the Philadelphia North American, Press, Ledger, Inquirer, Age, Bulletin and Telegraph.

Shares of this company, to a limited number, may be obtained at $50 each, $10 payable down, $15 on the 1st of November, and $25 payable in monthly instalments of $2.50 each, commencing December 1, 1868, on application to

THE NATIONAL ADMINISTRATION GAMBLING TO THE RUIN OF THE PEOPLE.

During the months from August to December it is required by the interest of the producing classes that currency should be more plenty, in order to move the surplus crops from the broad fields from the interior seaboard. This used to be done when we had gold and silver as our only legal money.

Grant's Administration, with an infernal and ever-tightening grip, has been withdrawing the paper stuff that is now our only currency, at the very time that the farmers and merchants of the interior needed its increase. We hope and trust the people of the interior may recognise, without regard to politics, what is distressing them.

The value of grain and provisinos, as well as of cotton, at a time like the present, depends very much on the prices offered on the sea-baord by foreign shippers. These purchases, for foreign account depend on the price of gold. If the purchasing price of wheat for exports is a dollar a bushel, in gold; then, if gold be at 50 per cent. premium, the price in greenbacks will be one dollar and a half. If the gold premium be only 25 per cent. then wheat will bring, in greenbacks, only one dollar and a quarter.

According to the old Democratic plan of government, before the war, Government did not meddle with the business of the people, but held that ten dollars meant ten dollars in gold, and so the courts had to decide. According to the new regime, Government meddles with everything, not only taxing everything and everybody, for moneys most prodigally wasted but undertaking to fix the price of their filthy greenback paper currency that is impoverishing us.

Were this administration of Government in the least interested in the welfare of the country, having undertaken to control the value of our paper currency, it would try and keep it on an equilibrium. The thing that upsets all calculation in honest business is the fluctuation in the value of the legal tender currency.

An honest merchant, in these late years, buys for his customors teas, coffees, sugars or dry goods, or other foreign commodities, on the basis of gold at a hundred and forty. By a twist of the money market, at the option of President Grant and his Secretary of the Treasury, Boutwell, gold is tumbled down ten per cent. The merchant that has bought at the higher figure, has been cheated, not only out of his legitimate profits, but he must sell at a large loss on what he has paid.

This Government of Grant and Boutwell, meantime, take the responsibility of regulating the price of gold.

If they had the right to do this, which they have not, they ought to have gotten some one less incapable than themselves to have told them how to do it, without hurting everybody. They might if they had the right, which they assume—have forewarned the public that in September, the price of gold would be advanced. This would have been to the interest of the farmers, and other producers. If the Administration of Grant and Boutwell had had the right, which it had not, it would have done a good thing by putting up the price of gold to fifty per cent premium during the months that crops are coming forward and being exported. It would have put more currency into circulation and it would have realized for the farmers better prices for the grain, &c., exported. As it is, gold is hardly at a premium of thirty per cent., and the farming, &c., classes, are to be hard put to it.

Thus much on the supposition that all this has happened by putting pumbkins and imbeciles, merely, at the helm, in such critical times. But now, to see whether these contemptible incapables have not tried to make themselves the tools of gamblers, to enrich themselves at the public expense.

There is an old saying about "honor among thieves." We can imagine such a thing among a class of sharp-witted fellows, who count themselves outcasts from the common society of men, and make a community for themselves. But an accidental association of unprincipled clodhoppers, if put in prominent position in a country so debauched as to have so placed them, is another thing. We do not believe there is likely to be any honor among such creatures—if they get a chance to cheat each other. They will hold together only so long as the advantage of each one may dictate.

This much we say in preface to what, on the authority of the Daily Times—conservative Black-Republican—of the Herald—Grant administration paper—and of the Sun, Radical Republican, and original advocate of Grant. has been made public during the past week, in regard to.

ASTOUNDING DICLOSURES.

On the 23d and 24th of last month, a movement was made in the Gold market that paralyzed business in New York, and ruined, or greatly distressed, multitudes who never speculated in the Gold Room or on the Stock exchange. The price of gold went up, in those two days from a hnndred and thirty four to a hundred and sixty five; and then very suddenly, fell to a hundred and thirty five—from which it has since receded to about one hundred and thirty. The advance was too rapid to have been either salutary or legitimate. The subsequent collapse was utterly disastrous. How was it brought about?

The Daily Times, an Administration paper says that it was openly vaunted in the market that the "highest" authority in Washington Administration was pledged not to let Secretary Boutwell sell gold while the clique, or "How long has this scheme been in progress, and who were the originators? The ruined bankers of New York demand to know it.

"An indignant country demands it, and asks why the carriage of the cool-headed, sharp, keen President of the Erie road has been seen morning and night in West Twenty-seventh street, at the residence of the brother-in-law of the President. Perhaps the confidential agent of the shrewd Prince of Erie, who has, in the last two weeks, made so many mid-night journeys to Washington, Pennsylvania, might explain something about the matter. The frequent interviews of the Admiral with Gen. Grant at New York, Saratoga, Long Island Sound, and elsewhere, are very significant.

"Whose influence was it that appointed the present Sub Treasurer of New York, after another man's commission had been made out? And what kind of a bargain was made.

"How much money has been sent to Washington that was not used in furnishing the White House in the last week or two?

"Who cashed the $100,000 check, and the $25,000 check, handed to a member of the President's family? Now, what shall we say in the face of all this terrible evil?

On Thursday the 30th ult., the New York Sun sent one of its trustiest managers to visit this brother-in-law of President Grant—one Corbin, residing now in a house in Twenty-seventh street, in this city—to know what he had to say about it. This Corbin denied that he had seen James Fisk, Jr., President of the Erie Rail Road, since some time, when the latter called to know of the whereabouts of President Grant, on one of his visits in this region. Next day, Mr. Fisk told the same manager of the New York Sun, that he had been in this Corbin's house at the very hour when the man of the Sun had called to see Corbin. The representative of the Sun, moreover, declares that he recognized Mr. Fisk's carriage at Corbin's door, when he called to see Corbin, and was put off, on the ground that he was busy.

The Sun certifies to the following, as relating to the disastrous days of Friday September 24th, and Saturday the 25th.

"While Fisk, Jr., was cooly unlocking his millions and reaping immense fortunes for the clique, Mr. Corbin unfortunately held for higher rates, and was caught with millions on his hands when the wild day of Friday ended. Fearing that Boutwell might have determined to follow up his sale of $4,000,000, with other heavy sales, the clique importuned Mr. Corbin to go to Washington and prevent it. Fisk Jr's, coach was at the President's brother-in-law's brown stone mansion, at an early hour last Saturday morning. It was there an hour again at noon, and again from 3 to 5, P. M. Mr. James Fisk, Jr., was with Mr. Corbin during all those hours, and at 9 P. M., Mr. Corbin hastened to Jersey City and took cars for Washington. With him, the Herald has stated, he took a certified and endorsed check for $100,000 in gold."

Well it is asked, in the Herald, "who cashed that hundred thousand dollar check?"

The man who, elevated, in chastisement of a misguided people. to the chair of chief magistrate of the United States, named A. T. Stewart, who had given him one house and lot, to be Secretary of the Treasury; and one Borie, an old monied fool of Philadelphia, who had given him another house and lot, to be Secretary of the Navy—and who used to try and swap knives, while kicking his heels against the counter of his father's shop in Galena, Ill., after having been forced to quit the old Army in disgrace, and having behaved so badly near St. Louis as to force his wife to quit him—is not the one that can pass by, in silence, these terrible revelations on the part of the very men and journals who promoted his disastrous election. Or, rather, we may suppose, he will pass them unanswered—except he gathers up his ill-gotten gains, and escapes from the country. We do not think that this son of Jesse has enough of sentiment in him to lead him to run away—so long as he has a Radical Congress to back him, on condition of his continuing its disgraced and wretched tool.

But what are the farmers and merchants of the country going to do about it? Have they, yes or no, had enough of this kind of "war glory?" Are they so far restored to a right mind as to care nothing for former political notions that have led to these disasters, and to be ready to try and restore a sane, and safe, and wise, administration of public affairs, under the old fashioned methods of the Democratic party.

The infamous party propose more hundred-thousand dollar checks for Grant, and more taxation for the people.

The Democratic party is pledged to a retrenchment of expenses; to a relief from the undue burden of taxation; and to putting come one in the Presidential chair, who will take neither houses and lots, nor hundred thousand dollar gold checks, as the price for oppressing the people of the United States.

In regard to the language used by the Sun, in reference to Mr. Fisk, of the Erie Road, we wish to say that we are by no means clear that he was not getting in the intelligent interest of agriculture, and of his, and other Railroads, in striving to put up the price of gold. It was precisely what the country interests wanted.

Our complaint is that Grant and Boutwell after realizing all they could from the clique that was putting gold up, then betrayed them, to make some more from the opposite clique. It was the terrible fall in the price of gold that hurt the entire community most. The measure of the general damages by the rise in gold, had pretty much been accomplished when gold went to sixty per cent. premium. But the more wide spread evil was occasioned by its collapse, and recession to thirty per cent. This it is that cuts farmers, and the country merchants depending on them, to the quick. For Government to have stepped in early Friday morning, when gold, the night before had reached fifty per cent. premium and announce an extraordinary sale of Government gold, would have been one thing. It was another thing to wait till it had gone to sixty per cent.—and the hundred thousand dollar check, dollar and the twenty-five thousand check, were signed and certified. It matters not what views different interests may take as to what is the proper financial policy, all interests and all intelligent men, must unite in denouncing as infamous, and transparent, the proceedings of the Grant-Boutwell intrigue in running with the hare, and holding with the hound—played a double, but a shallow game, with those that would advance, and with those that would depreciate the price o gold.

THE WRONG BED.

At a late hour Tuesday night quite a bridal party arrived in this city and put up at one of our hotels. The bride was accompanied by two of her young lady friends and the groom by two gentlemen. The names were registered in the usual way, but, in some way, a mistake was made in reference to the identity of the bride. The hours sped on towards the dawn, and the bride in her silent chamber waited the appearance of her lord. Yet he came not.—Surely he was not sitting up all this time. The rest of the party had retired, she was certain, since she heard them in their apartments.

What had become of him? Impatience gradually grew into terror.

She rang her bell, and the servant knocked at the door.

"Do you know where my husband is?" she inquired.

"Ain't he in here, ma'am?"

"No!"

"Maybe he stepped out into the city, ma'am, and will be back directly."

"I'm afraid; Oh, do inquire at the office and see if there is any intelligence about him."

The servant retired, and in a few moments returned with information that there was none.

The wife was now alarmed in earnest. She never had a husband before, and, like the man who drew the elephant in the lottery, scarcely knew what to do with the animal.

In her anxiety she went to the room of one of her bridesmaids and knocked at the door.

"Who's there?" was inquired in accents unmistakably masculine.

"Me—Mary—but, mercy!" who are you?" There was a sudden stir, and the sound of feet heavily falling on the floor.

"Who the devil am I in bed with, then?" she heard the man say, as the door swung open and her husbands' face peeped out.

"Oh, I'm distracted about you; where have you been?" asked the wife.

"I've been here in bed; but, deuce take me, I thought you were here too."

"O, James, it wasn't me."

"Who was it, then?"

"Why, it is Sarah."

"The devil."

"O, no, James, it was Sarah. Didn't you know it, James?"

"Blast me if I did! I found her asleep, and thinking this was our room I crept into bed and went to sleep," said James, evidently impressed with the idea that he had a difficult case to argue.

"Is she asleep yet, James?"

"Why, don't you hear her snore?"

But just then Sarah woke up and seeing a man in her room set up a succession of screeches that soon filled the hall with people.

And now the bridegroom found himself in a delicate position. In the hurry of explaining the matter to his wife he had neglected to put on his pants, and in his eager search for them he was dancing around the room like one possessed, now and then imploring Sarah to hush.

"I'm going, don't you see?" But Sarah wouldn't hush; and the wife in the hall, hemmed in by the crowd, had tried to explain, but failing in this had leaned her head against the wall and was enjoying a hearty cry.

At last, however, the pants were found and put on, and the husband and wife escaped to their chamber, whilst Sarah double-locked her door against all further intrusion. The next morning explanations were gone into, but there's no use denying that both ladies were the least bit incredulous, and it is said that a perceptible coldnesss has grown up between them, whilst the unintentionally offending bridegroom walks about a good deal, his head down, and evidently in unpleasant meditations.—Cleveland paper.

On last Saturday evening the wife of John Scanlan, a laborer employed by a gentleman at Riverdale, West Chester county, N. Y., while strolling through the fields with her children, saw what she and they supposed to be mushrooms, but which were in reality a species of poisonous fungi. The supposed mushrooms were taken home and cooked by Mrs. Scanlan, and eaten with great gusto, by her and her two eldest children. Five or six hours after they were seized with violent convulsions and for a few hours suffered great agony. Three doctors were sent for, but on their arrival the sufferers were nearly past all hope of recovery. In spite of everything which medical knowledge could suggest and skill execute, one of the children, a boy six years old, died in awful agony, on Monday morning. During the day a little infant who had inoculated the fell poison through its mother's milk, expired. The mother, who is still suffering from the effects of the poison, may possibly recover, but the eldest child is deemed past recovery.

A new-married couple were traveling in the cars near Albany, when the husband pulled a roll of something from his pocket, which the wife thought was chewing tobacco. She snatched it from him and threw it out the window. It proved to be a roll of greenbacks, $2,500. She has quit throwing things over her shoulders.

AN ADMISSION.

At the meeting of the Senatorial Return Judges, on the 19th instant, an attempt was made by a few unscrupulous Radical politicians to cheat Hiram Findlay, Senator elect from this district, out of the certificate of election. It appeared that at the meeting of the board of Return Judges for Somerset county, the Return Judge from Allegheny township did not present a certificate of the number of votes polled for the several candidates signed by the election officers, but only handed in the tally paper, which he supposed to be a sufficient return. The board refused to count the vote of that township from the tally paper, but sent the Allegheny Judge after his certificate, which, by mistake, had been sealed up in the ballot-box. The board waited until midnight for the re-appearance of the Return Judge, but as he had some fifty miles to travel he did not reach Somerset until half past 12 o'clock, in the morning, just half an hour after the Radical Judges left the meeting. The Democratic Judges, however, remained, and received, and counted the Allegheny return, and elected one of their number, as provided by law, to represent the Board of Return Judges of Somerset county in the meeting of Senatorial Return Judges. The Radical Judges in their haste to get away before the return of the Allegheny Judge, who had been sent after his certificate by their own direction, did not complete their work in any particular.—They did not wait for the addition of the returns of the several districts of the county, but signed all the necessary papers in blank, leaving their whole duty to be performed by their clerks. Under the decision of Attorney General Meredith, in the Coffroth-Koontz case, it was the duty of the Return Judges to adjourn till the next day, so that the whole vote of the county might be received and counted. But they imagined that an advantage might be gained for Mr. Scull, by omitting Allegheny township from the count, and, therefore, hastened to disperse. This little project to nullify the will of the people of this Senatorial district, however, has most signally failed. The Board of Senatorial Return Judges preferred to receive the complete rather than the partial return from Somerset, and a certificate of election was given to Mr. Findlay signed by all the Judges and attested by John G. Fisher, Democrat, and M. A. Points, Republican, the two clerks.

The Inquirer, of last week, has the following editorial comments on this subject:

"There seems to be no evidence of fraud in the returns of Allegheny township, and the objection to it is on the ground of irregularity. The closeness of the Senatorial vote seems likely to provoke a contest and this is most likely the beginning of it. We are not prepared to indorse the action of the Somerset return Judges, as we believe they would have done better to have adjourned to the next day and waited for the full returns. We think the election should be contested but do not believe this the best way to begin. The movement however has a precedent somewhat similar in the case of Koontz and Coffroth in the Congressional contest of 1864, and as it has that famous Democratic precedent the Democracy cannot consistently object to a dose of their own medicine."

This is tantamount to an admission that Mr. Findlay is fairly entitled to the certificate of election. The Inquirer might have gone further and said that there is not even an allegation of fraud in Allegheny township. That district gave Mr. Findlay 40 majority, which is not larger than its usual Democratic majority. But the Inquirer seems to think that the election should be contested. If there is no allegation of fraud, why should it be contested? Simply because Mr. Findlay's majority is small and Radical trickery in the Senate will find a way to blot it out? Is that the only reason? As for the precedent alleged to have been set by the Democrats in the Coffroth-Koontz case, the odds make the difference. In that case Mr. Coffroth alleged and proved fraudulent votes. There is no such allegation, nor can there be any such proof in this one. But the Inquirer, conceding that Findlay is entitled to the certificate, holds that what was wrong when committed by the Democrats, is venial when done by its own party. Proh Pudor, Lutz!

LOCAL ELECTIONS.

The clause in the Registry Act passed last winter, which abolishes spring elections, was intended by the framers of that law as an irresistible douceur to that otherwise nauseous dose. When it was objected to that enactment that the execution of its provisions added largely to the expense of conducting elections, we were instantly told that spring elections are now dispensed with and that as much would be saved by holding local elections on the day of the general election as would be lost by the friction of the cumbrous machinery of the Registry Act. This was not strictly true, because election officers, on the ground that their labors have been greatly increased, are allowed more per diem than at former general elections; and the blending of the local and general elections has lessened the expense in fees of election officers very little, if at all, whilst the sums paid to assessors and county commissioners and for printing registry blanks, exceed by far the whole cost of holding spring elections. Nevertheless, gullible people eagerly swallowed this excuse for the Registry Act, deeming the abolition of spring elections a wholesome reform. We find, however, that this very peculiarity which was intended to sugar-coat the odious compound of radical cunning and "know-nothing" hate is beginning to nauseate the loyal stomach. The board of return judges of Erie county, largely radical in its composition, at its meeting on the 15th inst., passed a resolution recommending the repeal of the section of the Registry Act which abolishes spring elections. These return judges assign as reasons for such a course that the holding of elections for local officers on the day of the general election, whilst it saves no expense to the people, causes much confusion and trouble. This is undoubtedly true. But a graver reason for holding elections for local officers on another day than that on which the general election is held, is found in the wrong inflicted on communities by nominations for municipal and other local offices which could not be made, if those who make them did not trust to party rage, aroused and intensified by a fierce canvass, to give them success at the polls. In this way bad men get into office, obtain influence and are enabled to corrupt the body politic. For this cause, if for no other, elections for municipal and other local officers should be entirely separated from those for State officers and members of the legislature. Indeed we would go farther than the old law and include county officers among those to be chosen at the local elections. We believe that under such an order of things, better men would be selected to fill the minor offices, that the central government could not wield so great influence in their selection, that, in short, the people would be freer and blessed with more faithful public servants. We, therefore, hope that the resolution adopted by the Erie return judges will be favorably regarded by the next legislature and that the section of the Registry Act which fixes the election of local officers on the day of the general election will be repealed.

Some of the radical papers claim the success of their party in the recent elections in Pennsylvania and Ohio as evidence of the popular confidence in the administration of President Grant.—Grant's majority in Ohio was over forty thousand, and nearly thirty thousand in Pennsylvania, or about 70,000 in the two States. Now, the combined radical majority for Hayes in the one and Geary in the other shows a loss of nearly 60,000. Surely these gentlemen are easily gratified. They are not defeated, and hence their glorification.

But they should bear in mind that the Grant administration is not a year old yet, and that the history of parties in this country fails to show a single instance wherein a successful Presidential party was rebuked by the people the first year of its term. The Grant administration has had the honor of coming nearer reaching such a distinction than any of its predecessors, and his followers are quite welcome to all the good it will do them.

Hon. Henry Cooper, at present a member of the State Senate of Tennessee, was elected United States Senator to succeed Senator Fowler whose term expires on the 4th of March, 1871. Mr. Cooper is one of the ablest lawyers in Tennessee, and is in every way qualified for the position to which he has been chosen. We are sorry that the legislature of Tennessee defeated Andrew Johnson, but in the new man we have a thorough Democrat, and we are satisfied with that.

THE RESULT—OFFICIAL VOTE.

Perry Prettyman, Oregon, has patented an invention relating to improvements in railroad cars, the object of which is to prevent them from running or being thrown off the track from any cause. It consists in the application to the car trucks of auxiliary axles and wheels, so arranged that the wheels will be suspended between an inward projecting portion or flange of the top of the rail, and a corresponding widened portion of the bottom of the rail, the upper flange of the said rail serving by its action on the auxiliary wheels to hold the cars from runing off, and the lower flange serving for the track of the said auxiliary wheels, which receive and support the cars of the main axle break.

Reformation Jubilee.

The Grand Reformation Jubilee and Musical Festival, inaugurating the Fair for the benefit of the Orphans' Home at Germantown, came off last night. The Academy of Music, with an immense audience, and its imposing surroundings, presented a very brilliant scene. Great preparations had been made for this opening, and the highest expectations were realized. An overture by an Orchestra of forty select performers, put us in good humor with all the musicians in the world, and we were ready for the curtain to rise. The music ceased, and then slowly the curtain rolled up, and, amid exclamations of delight and surprise, there was disclosed a grand sight. Before us was the interior of a Cathedral of the Sixteenth Century, with its immense pillars, on each of which hung paintings of the apostles and saints, and

'Cornice and freize with bossy sculptures graven.'

Far in the distance was the Altar with crowning arches surmounting it.—Thro' which poured a flood of light, whilst in the aisles and crowding the altar was a throng of five hundred worshippers, both great and small. The Cathedral bell rings, and then from the tower we hear the notes of Luther's grand old Battle Hymn, slowly and softly played by a bugle which is then taken up by the full chorus below. In the second stanza, at the words Jesus Christ it is, (which in the Thirty Years' War, the Swedish army under Gustavus Adolphus, always accompanied with military music and a salute of artillery,) was then taken up by every voice, a full force of the Orchestra, and the brass instruments and drums a perfect hurricane of music went crashing through the building. After an introduction by Mayor Fox, the

Ein Feste Burg,

from the Home were brought upon the stage. First came a little fellow hobbling with his crutch followed by fifty boys and girls ranging in age from twelve to two years. It was an affecting sight, and we saw many in the audience weep. We confess that we felt something like a big lump in our throat too; for who has not often felt that whilst,

"Oft heart-sick and sore
I've wished I were once more
A little child,"

yet there could be no sadder lot on earth than to be—a little Orphan! We wonder not that many a parent who looked on that scene thought of their little ones at home and wept. And when they sung the beautiful hymn, "There is no name" and took up the refrain:

"For there s no word ear ever heard,
So dear, so sweet, as Jesus," every heart was moved in response to the prayer, God bless these little fatherless and motherless ones! Then they sung a Carol, the words written and music arranged for this occasion, the Chorus of which was joined in by three hundred Sunday school children. This was followed by a grand vocal and instrumental chorus from the Oratorio of the Creation, by the Handel and Haydn Society and was magnificently rendered. Everybody was anxious to hear the Young Maennerchor. This German Society is composed of young men only of course, and we never did think there was any music in male voices; although, no doubt, the ladies would differ with me here. But when they got through with

"Wer nie sein brod mit thranen gegessen," although we do not understand German we admit that we could not avoid joining the encore. They returned, and our fervent desire was that they would give us a Battle Hymn in the original; but we were not so favored.

In the absence of the Rev. Dr. Krotel of N. Y., we had a stirring speech from Ex-Gov. Pollock.

He said the cause of the Orphan was the cause of God and of humanity. Adverting to this Reformation Jubilee, he said that Luther needed no monument—it was indelibly written in the hearts of the people—that his name would never die, for he was the father of regenerated nations, &c.—This Lutheran speech from a Presbyterian brought down the Academy with storms of applause. After this, the Chorus, "Lift up your heads," from the Oratoria of the Messiah was sung with thrilling effect, and followed by full Orchestra with a grand combined chorus of all the Societies. After an address by Rev. Mr. Schmucker, of Reading, the Young Maennerchor again sang and were encored; and then a grand chorus, "The Hallelujah" in which the different parts, as they were sung by select singers from the different societies, fifty joined together, and "in linked sweetness long drawn out," called forth the sublimest emotions, and then in one grand tempest of song carried you off,

Finale.

A fitting close to these delightful songs, and scenes was the singing of Old Hundred, ascribed to Luther. Every body sings that, and if there is a man who keeps his mouth shut when it is sung, we hand him over to Shakespeare. There is no hope for his soul, according to the above dramatic authority. Certainly everybody sings it, whether in a gorgeous Cathedral or an old log meeting house. And why is it you always sing Old Hundred so much louder and open your mouth so much wider than when you sing other tunes? I am sure I dont know, but it appears to be set for the millions to sing, and sing it they will as long as the world moves; and if it be true that sounds reverberate forever, Heaven will be full of Old Hundred. I wish you had been at the Academy last night, brother Mengel, to have heard it, and helped too. Not only did the combined force of the six societies and all the childern, the full Orchestra and brass instruments, numbering in all nearly one thousand, but the whole audience, six thousand people, rose en masse, and joining in this doxology swelled the sound of praise to God until it seemed as the noise of mighty thunderings.

The Fair opens to day and we will probably give you some notes about it.

In haste, as ever,

Oct. 19th 1869. LINDEN.

DEATH OF EX-GOVERNOR RITNER.

The official returns of the election of a Governor of Pennsylvania have not been completed until the death of a former chief magistrate of the Commonwealth is announced. Joseph Ritner died on Saturday afternoon last at the residence of a son-in-law, in the borough of Carlisle, at the extreme age of ninety. He was born in the township of Alcase, in the county of Berks, of German parentage—of that sturdy, frugal, honest and industrious stock which contributed so largely to the prosperity of this great State. His early opportunities for education were few, being confined to the winter schools of his neighborhood. Early in life he removed to the county of Washington, and engaged in farming, the occupation in which he had been reared. Soon after his removal to Washington county he began to take an active part in politics, and was elected by his Democratic neighbors to the State Legislature. He served in the legislature for a number of years, and was chosen Speaker of the House in the sessions of 1826 and 1827. As a Speaker he maintained a reputation for promptness and fairness in his decisions, and impartiality in the organization of the committees of the body over which he presided.

In 1827 he was appointed by President Adams one of the Visitors to West Point. A failure to obtain a new nomination for the legislature at the hands of the Democrats, compelled him to retire for a few years from public life.

In 1829 Joseph Ritner was nominated for Governor by the rising faction of anti-Masons, at the head of whom was Thaddeus Stevens. In this contest, his vote was small. He was again nominated against George Wolf by the anti-Masons in 1832, and although defeated, the heavy vote which he received gave evidence of popularity and strength among the people beyond that of the faction to which he belonged. Divisions among the Democrats in 1835, enabled Ritner to gratify his long cherished ambition of becoming Governor. There were two democratic candidates in the field, George Wolf and Henry A. Muhlenberg, and between them Ritner slipped in. During his administration the great system of Public Works inaugurated by Gov. Wolf was continued. Some extravagant railroad schemes were started, among them the notorious Tape-worm road in Adam-county, the ruined culverts of which are still to be seen. Thos. H. Burrowes, now President of the State Agricultural College, was Ritner's Secretary of State; James Todd, of Fayette county, was the Attorney General, and Thaddeus Stevens, a member of the Canal Board, was the leader of the administration. The large appropriation of the public money, and what was deemed its reckless and wasteful expenditure in enterprises of no benefit to the people, made the administration of Ritner extremely unpopular. When presented for re-election, he was defeted by David R. Porter by an immense majority. At this election, for the first time in the political history of the Commonwealth, the most corrupt practices were resorted to to ensure success. The Canal Board raised from contractors and others employed on the Public Works what Thaddeus Stevens irreverently called a Missionary Fund to be employed in elections, and the returns of the vote at Millerstown in Adams county, and other places showed a capacity for fraud in that early day which might well excite envy in the breast of a Covode. In the midst of the storm raised by the attempt to defeat the will of the people in the elections in 1838, the administration of Ritner closed. The lawfully chosen representatives were admitted to their seats and the Buckshot War ended without the shedding of blood.

On retiring from office Governor Ritner purchased a farm in Cumberland county, on which he continued to reside almost to the day of his death. He never again emerged from private life, though he made one or two unsuccessful attempts to obtain office. He was an applicant for the Treasurership of the Mint, under President Taylor, but, being disappointed, he was never again heard of in politics.

Though he was the object of much denunciation and ridicule while Governor, yet he was a man of considerable intellect and force of character. Although a violent partisan, some of the worst acts of his administration must be attributed to the recklessness of his official advisers and the party spirit which prevailed at the time. Without possessing much education, he had no little knowledge and experience in publicaffairs. He was one of the Governors of the "Farmer Commonwealth," and since he owed his elevation to the tillers of the soil, he was devoted to what he considered their true interests. Since his day the "Farmer Commonwealth" has disappeared. The honest tillers of the ground have lost their influence in the politics of the State, and a new rule has begun its downward course. Great corporations, and rings of speculators and lobby men have obtained complete control of the government of the Commonwealth. These agencies were scarcely known in the administration of Joseph Ritner.—Harrisburg Patriot.

A Canadian paper reports that since Prince Arthur landed at Halifax he has received and replied to 159 addresses, attended 105 public dinners, and 39 balls, danced with 340 partners, received 1,700 bouquets, shaken 15,000 hands, shot 150 head of game, given 69 presents, travelled 4,500 miles, been elected an Indian chief, and has heard 2,000,000 "God bless hims."

Both houses of the Legislatnre of Virginia, on the 19th inst., went into the election of United States Senators, and elected Lieutenant Governor John F. Lewis, for the long term, and Judge John W. Johnson, of Washington county, for the short term. The Wells Republican candidates, Alexander Sharpe and T. H. Chandler, received the support of their friends. The election was by a strict party vote, with the exception of three Wells members, who voted for Lewis and Johnson.

The Virginia press is well pleased with the result of the Senatorial election. The Richmond Examiner says:

We are glad that the gentlemen elected possess character enough to entitle them to public confidence, and that the people of Virginia will have representatives in the United States Senate to whom they can commit their affairs without the fear of betrayal. This is one thing in which we can all rejoice.

As to what Congress will do about "admitting Virginia" with these gentlemen as her Senators, we think there is no need for apprehension. They are true representatives of the movement which elevated Governor Walker to the Executive chair of Virginia; and we cannot doubt that President Grant will take them by the hand, if he means to conform to the implied agreement he entered into with Virginia in instigating the action of Congress last spring for her re-admission to the Union. The pathway laid down for this proud old Commonwealth to tread was a very narrow chalk mark, but we have plumbed it exactly.

A New York correspondent says it is now settled that we are to have another season of Italian opera, under the management of the Maretzek regime, to commence about the middle of November and to run into Febuary. Besides Kellogg and Carlotta Patti, Madame de Briol from the San Carlos, Naples, Signor Lafrone, a tenore robusto, from Berlin, and Signor Cottione, from the Royal Italian Opera, London, are among the principal attractions. Antonucci, Ronconi and Massimiliani will also be part of the company.

There is a horse at Marshal, Missouri, which is subject to fits of insanity, in one of which, a few days ago, it left its stable, broke into the yard of a Mrs. Walker, and then through the hall door of the house, and a door leading into a private sleeping apartment, where it concluded its erring by falling and smashing a bed in the room. Nobody was home except two boys who were sleeping in an adjoining room, and thus had their slumbers disturbed by the entrance of this mad animal. It remained in the room until day, when, with the help of neighbors, the boys put it out again upon the commons.

They cleanse the stomach, relax the liver, and put it to work: then the appetite becomes good; the food digests and makes good blood; the patient begins to grow in flesh; the diseased matter ripens in the lungs, and the patient outgrows the disease and gets well. This is the only way to cure consumption.
To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivalled success in the treatment of pulmonary consumption. The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs, nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe, a slight cough will throw it off, and the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.
To do this, the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver, so that the Pulmonic Syrup and the food will make good blood
Schenck's Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the ducts of the gall-bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved; the stools will show what the Pills can do; nothing has ever been invented except calomel (a deadly poison which is very dangerous to use unless with great care), that will unlock the gall-bladder and starts the secretions of the liver like Schenck's Mandrake Pills
Schenck's Seaweed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative, and the Alkali in the Seaweed, which this preparation is made of, assists the stomach to throw out the gastric juice to dissolve the food with the Pulmonic Syrup, and it is made into good blood without fermentation or souring in the stomach.
The great reason why physicians do not cure consumption is, they try to do too much; they give medicine to stop the cough, to stop chills, to stop night sweats, hectic fever, and by so doing they derange the whole digestive powers, locking up the secretions, and eventually the patient sinks and dies.
Dr. Schenck, in his treatment, does not try to stop a cough, night sweats, chills, or fever. Remove the cause, and they will all stop of their own accord. No one can be cured of Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Catarrh, Canker, Ulcerated Throat, unless the liver and stomach are made healthy.
If a person has Consumption, of course the lungs in some way are diseased, either tubercles, abscesses, bronchial irritation, pleura adhesion, or the lungs are a mass of inflammation and fast decaying. In such cases what must be done? It is not only the lungs that are wasting, but it is the whole body. The stomach and liver have lost their power to make blood out of food. Now the only chance is to take Schenck's three medicines, which will bring up a tone to the stomach, the patient will begin to want food, it will digest easily and make good blood: then the patient begins to gain in flesh, and as soon as the body begins to grow, the lungs commence to heal up, and the patient gets fleshy and well. This is the only way to cure consumption.
When there is no lung disease, and only Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are sufficient without the Pulmonic Syrup. Take the Mandrake Pills freely in all billious complaints, as they are perfectly harmless
Dr. Schenck, who has enjoyed uninterrupted health for many years past, and now weighs 225 pounds, was wasted away to a mere skeleton, in the very last stage of Pulmonary Consumption, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless and abandoned him to his fate. He was cured by the aforesaid medicines, and since his recovery many thousands similarly afflicted have used Dr. Schenck's preparations with the same remarkable success. Full directions accompanying each, make it not absolutely necessary to personally see Dr. Schenck, unless the patients wish their lungs examined, and for this purpose he is professionally at his Principal Office, Philadelphia, every Saturday, where all letters for advice must be addressed. He is also professionally at No. 32 Bond Street, New York, every other Tuesday, and at No. 35 Hanover Street, Boston, every other Wednesday. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer the price is $5 Office hours at each city from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.
Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1 50 per bottle, or $7.50 a half-dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists, COLBURN'S PATENT RED JACKET AXE.

Is better than our regular shaped Axes for these reasons. First—It cuts deeper. Second—It don't stick in the Wood. Third—It does not jar the hand. Fourth—No time is wasted in taking the Axe out of the cut. Fifth—With the same labor you will do one third more work than with regular Axes. Red paint has nothing to do with the good qualities of this Axe, for all our Axes are painted red. If your hardware store does not keep our goods, we will gladly answer inquiries or fill your orders direct, or give you the name of the nearest dealer who keeps our Axes. OUR NEW FAMILY SEWING MACHINE.

The superior merits of the "Singer" Machines over all others, for either Family use or Manufacturing purposes, are so well established and so generally admitted, that an enumeration of their relative excellences is no longer considered necessary.

OUR NEW FAMILY MACHINE,

which has been brought to perfection regardless of time, labor, or expense, is now confidently presented to the public as incomparably the Best Sewing Machine in existence. The machine in question is Simple, Compact, Durable and Beautiful. It is quiet, light running, and never before attempted upon a single Machine,—using either SILK, TWIST, LINEN OR COTTON THREAD, and sewing with equal facility the very finest and coarsest materials, and anything between the two extremes, in the most beautiful and substantial manner. Its attachments for Hemming, Braiding, Cording, Tucking, Quilting, Felling, Trimming, Binding, etc., are Novel and Practical, and have been invented and adjusted especially for this Machine.

New designs of the Unique, Useful, and Popular Folding Tops and Cabinet Cases, peculiar to the Machines manufactured by this Company, have been prepared for enclosing the new Machine.

A faint idea, however, can at best be conveyed through the medium of a (necessarily) limited advertisement; and we therefore urge every person in quest of a Sewing Machine, by all means to examine and test, if they can possibly do so, all the leading rival Machines before making a purchase. A selection can then be made understandingly. Branches or agencies for supplying the "Singer" Machines will be found in nearly every city and town throughout the civilized world, where Machines will be cheerfully exhibited, and any information promptly furnished. MIDDLETON'S

WONDERFUL PAIN CURE

A sure remedy for Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Growing Pains, Sprains, Bruises, Stiffnes, of the Joints and all similar diseases.

This wonderful remedy is composed entirely of vegetable ingredients. There are no injurious substances used in its manufacture.

For assurance of its excellent properties, read the following certificates:

BEDFORD, May 8, 1869.

I take great pleasure in giving my testimony to the value of "Middleton's Wonderful Pain Cure." I have been a martyr to Rheumatism. For two months previous to Feb. 25th, last, I was suffering intensely with pain so severe, that during all that time I had not one night of comfortable sleep. I could not put my hands to my face, could not comb my own hair, nor feed myself; but after having the Pain Cure applied once, I found relief enough to give me comfortable sleep, and with its steady use, I continued to get better, and now at the end of ten weeks from its first application, I have comparatively free use of my hands, sleep well and can attend to business. It has done me more good than all other medicines I have ever used put together, and I cheerfully give this certificate of its value.

ELI M. FISHER.

BEDFORD, April 14, 1869.

Mr. W. W. Middleton,

This is to certify that I was taken with Rheumatism, in my right shoulder, on the evening of the 8th inst., so that I was unable to raise my hand to my face. I got some of your Pain Cure and applied it twice, and was entirely relieved. I would recommend to every one who suffers with Rheumatism to give it a trial and be cured.

Yours &c., A. F. MILLER.

BEDFORD, May 17, 1869.

Mr. Middleton,

DEAR SIR:—I have used several bottles of your medicine in my family, and find it to be all you claim for it. Yours, truly,

JOHN HAFER.

BEDFORD, May 13, 1869.

This is to certify that I have used "Middleton's Pain Cure," for Rheumatism, and was very much benefited by it. JOHN HARRIS.

BEDFORD, May 18, 1869.

This is to certify that I have used Middleton's Liniment, for the Rheumatism which I had in my right shoulder so bad that I could not get my hand to my head without great pain, and after a few applications was entirely relieved.

L. F. DART.

BEDFORD, May 1, 1869.

Mr Middleton,

Dear Sir:—Mrs. Bowser was in much suffering for some four weeks with Rheumatism, and got some of your Pain Cure, and the first night I applied it it eased the pain; and after keeping on using it for two weeks, she was restored to health. I feel it to be my duty, as it is a pleasure, to write this recommendation for the benefit of others. JACOB BOWSER.

BEDFORD, May 16, 1869.

Mr W. W. Middleton:

Sir—I procured a bottle of your Liniment for Rheumatism, and it gives me great pleasure in saying that after using it for two days, my rheumatism was completely relieved. My sister was suffering, at the same time, with Inflamatory Rheumatism in her right hand and wrist—after using it for several days she was relieved. I consider it the best remedy I ever heard of.

JOHN KEEFE.

BEDFORD, May 24, 1869.

This is to certify that I have used one bottle of Middleton's Liniment, for Rheumatism, and think it a good cure, and would recommend it to all persons that are afflicted with the above disease.

AUGUSTUS CARVER.

BEDFORD, May 26, 1869.

Mr. Middleton:

Sir—I procured one bottle of your medicine and used one-half of it for Rheumatism, which effected a permanent cure up to this time. I cannot hesitate in saying that it is the best remedy I ever used. A. B. CARN.

This excellent PAIN CURE is prepared only by W. W. MIDDLETON, Bedford, Pa., to whom all orders for the medicine should be addressed.

NATURE'S GREAT RESTORER.

SCHEETZ'S

CELEBRATED

BITTER CORDIAL.

This medical preparation is now offered to the public as a reliable substitute for the many worthless compounds which now flood the market. It is purely vegetable, composed of various herbs, gathered from the great storehouse of nature, and selected with the utmost care. It is not recommended as a CURE ALL, but by its direct and salutary influence upon the Heart, Liver, Kidneys, Lungs, Stomach and Bowels, it acts both as a preventive and cure for many of the diseases to which those organs are subject. It is a reliable Family Medicine, and can be taken by either infant or adult with the same beneficial results. It is a certain, prompt and speedy remedy for DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, BOWEL COMPLAINT, DYSPEPSIA, LOWNESS OF SPIRITS, FAINTINGS, SICK-HEADACHE, &c. For Chills and Fevers of all kinds, it is far better and safer than quinine, without any of its pernicious effects. It creates an appetite, proves a powerful digester of food, and will counteract the effects of liquor in a few minutes.

AYER'S

HAIR VIGOR,

FOR THE RENOVATION OF THE HAIR.

THE GREAT DESIDERATUM OF THE AGE.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color and the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts longer on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

HAIR DRESSING,

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one Medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For DYSPEPSIA or INDIGESTION, LISTLESSNESS, LANGUOR and LOSS of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For LIVER COMPLAINT and its various symptoms, BILLIOUS HEADACHE, SICK HEADACHE, JAUNDICE or Green SICKNESS, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For DYSENTERY or DIARRHŒA, but one mild dose is generally required.

For RHEUMATISM, GOUT, GRAVEL, PALPITATION OF THE HEART, PAIN IN THE SIDE, BACK and LOINS, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For DROPSY and DROPSICAL SWELLINGS they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For SUPPRESSION a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a DINNER PILL, take one or two pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these PILLS makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

Our friends will find at Mr. Waters' store the very best assortment of Pianos, Melodeons and Organs to be found in the United States.—Graham's Magazine.

MUSICAL DOINGS.—Since Mr. Waters gave up publishing sheet music, he has devoted his whole capital and attention to the manufacture and sale of Pianos and Melodeons. He has just issued a catalogue of his new instruments, giving a new scale of prices, which shows a marked reduction from former rates, and his Pianos have recently been awarded the First Premium at several Fairs. Many people of the present day, who are attracted, if not confused, with the flaming adeertisements of rival piano houses, probably overlook the modest manufacturer like Mr. Waters; but we happen to know that his instruments earned him a good reputation long before Expositions and "honors" connected therewith were ever thought of; indeed, we have one of Mr. Waters' Pianofortes now in our residence (where it has stood for many years,) of which any manufacturer in the world might well be proud. We have always been delighted with it as a sweet-toned and powerful instrument, and there is no doubt of its durability; more than this, some of the best amateur players in the city, as well as several celebrated pianists, have performed on the same piano, and all pronounce it a superior and first-class instrument. Stronger endorsement we could not give.—Home Journal. jan15,'69.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develops into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this Sarsaparilla is advisable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear. Persons afflicted with the following complaints generally find immediate relief, and, at length, cure, by the use of this Sarsaparilla: St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various Ulcerous affections of the muscular and nervous systems.

Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long continued use of this medicine will cure the complaint. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute Directions for each case are found in our Almanac, supplied gratis. Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Torpidity, Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do, from the rankling poisons in the blood. This SARSAPARILLA is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are Languid and Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of Weakness, will find immediate rel
